

Inventory control system overview

A comprehensive guide to managing inventory and related processes

Agenda

- System Basics
- Inventory Management
- Reporting and Analysis

System Basics

Understanding the core functionalities

Access Control Panel

- Admins can manage user roles and permissions.
- Different access levels: Admin, Super Admin, Cashier.
- Control access to various system modules.
- Ensure security and proper usage of the system.

System Login

- Users must enter a username and password.
- Login interface for Admin, Cashier, and Super Admin into different dashboards.
- Secure login process to protect sensitive information.

Subtitle

Employee Management

- Register new employees with necessary details.
- Edit existing employee information.
- Manage employee types and their access levels.
- Search and view employee information easily.

Inventory Management

Product Management

- Add new products with detailed parameters.
- Edit existing product information.
- Manage product categories and discounts.
- Handle product returns and refunds efficiently.

Stock Adjustment

- Adjust stock levels for main locations.
- Ensure accurate stock records in the system.
- Handle stock adjustments for returns, issues, and damages.

Subtitle

Location Management

- Create and update location details.
- Manage secondary locations.
- Search and edit location information.
- Ensure accurate location data for inventory control.

Reporting and Analysis

Generating and interpreting reports

Sales Reports

- Generate sales reports for specific date ranges.
- Analyze sales data to identify trends.
- Print and save sales reports for records.
- Use report IDs to access specific reports.

Subtitle

Stock Reports

- Generate current stock reports for primary locations.
- Analyze stock levels and movements.
- Print and save stock reports for records.
- Use report IDs to access specific reports.

Profit Reports

- Generate profit reports for specific date ranges.
- Analyze profit margins and performance.
- Print and save profit reports for records.

Questions?

Open floor for questions and clarifications