

Retail management system features

Retail system functionalities

- Includes features like product costing, product categories, and product issues.
- Involves processes like stock adjustments, creation, and managing products.

Reporting and management tools

- Provides various reports such as sales, stock, returns, and profits.
- Allows for managing locations, categories, employees, and suppliers.

User access control and management

- Involves different user roles like admin, cashier, and super admin.
- Requires login credentials and access permissions for different system functionalities.

Payment options and processing

- Supports various payment methods like cash, credit, and card.
- Manages cash transactions, refunds, and petty cash handling.

Product and inventory management

- Involves tasks like adding, removing, and returning items.
- Includes functionalities for managing stock, categories, and suppliers.